

CONCENTRIC CIRCLES 1
stevehusting.com/calligraphy

SPIRAL 1 medium
stevehusting.com/calligraphy

Gray circles indicate the starting and ending location of text.

SPIRAL 2 small stevhusting.com/calligraphy

Gray circles indicate the starting and ending location of text.

SPIRAL 3

stevehusting.com/calligraphy

Gray circles indicate the starting and ending location of text between two lines. There is a space between lines. Use the space for ascenders and descenders.

Gray rectangles indicate starting and ending location of text when spread across three lines.

SPIRAL 4

stevehusting.com/calligraphy

Gray circles indicate the starting and ending location of text between two lines. There is a space above and below the space; use the space for ascenders and descenders.

Gray diamonds indicate starting and ending location of text when spread across three lines (two spaces). There is a space between the text.

Gray rectangles indicate starting and ending location of text when spread across four lines (three spaces).

SPIRAL 5

stevehusting.com/calligraphy

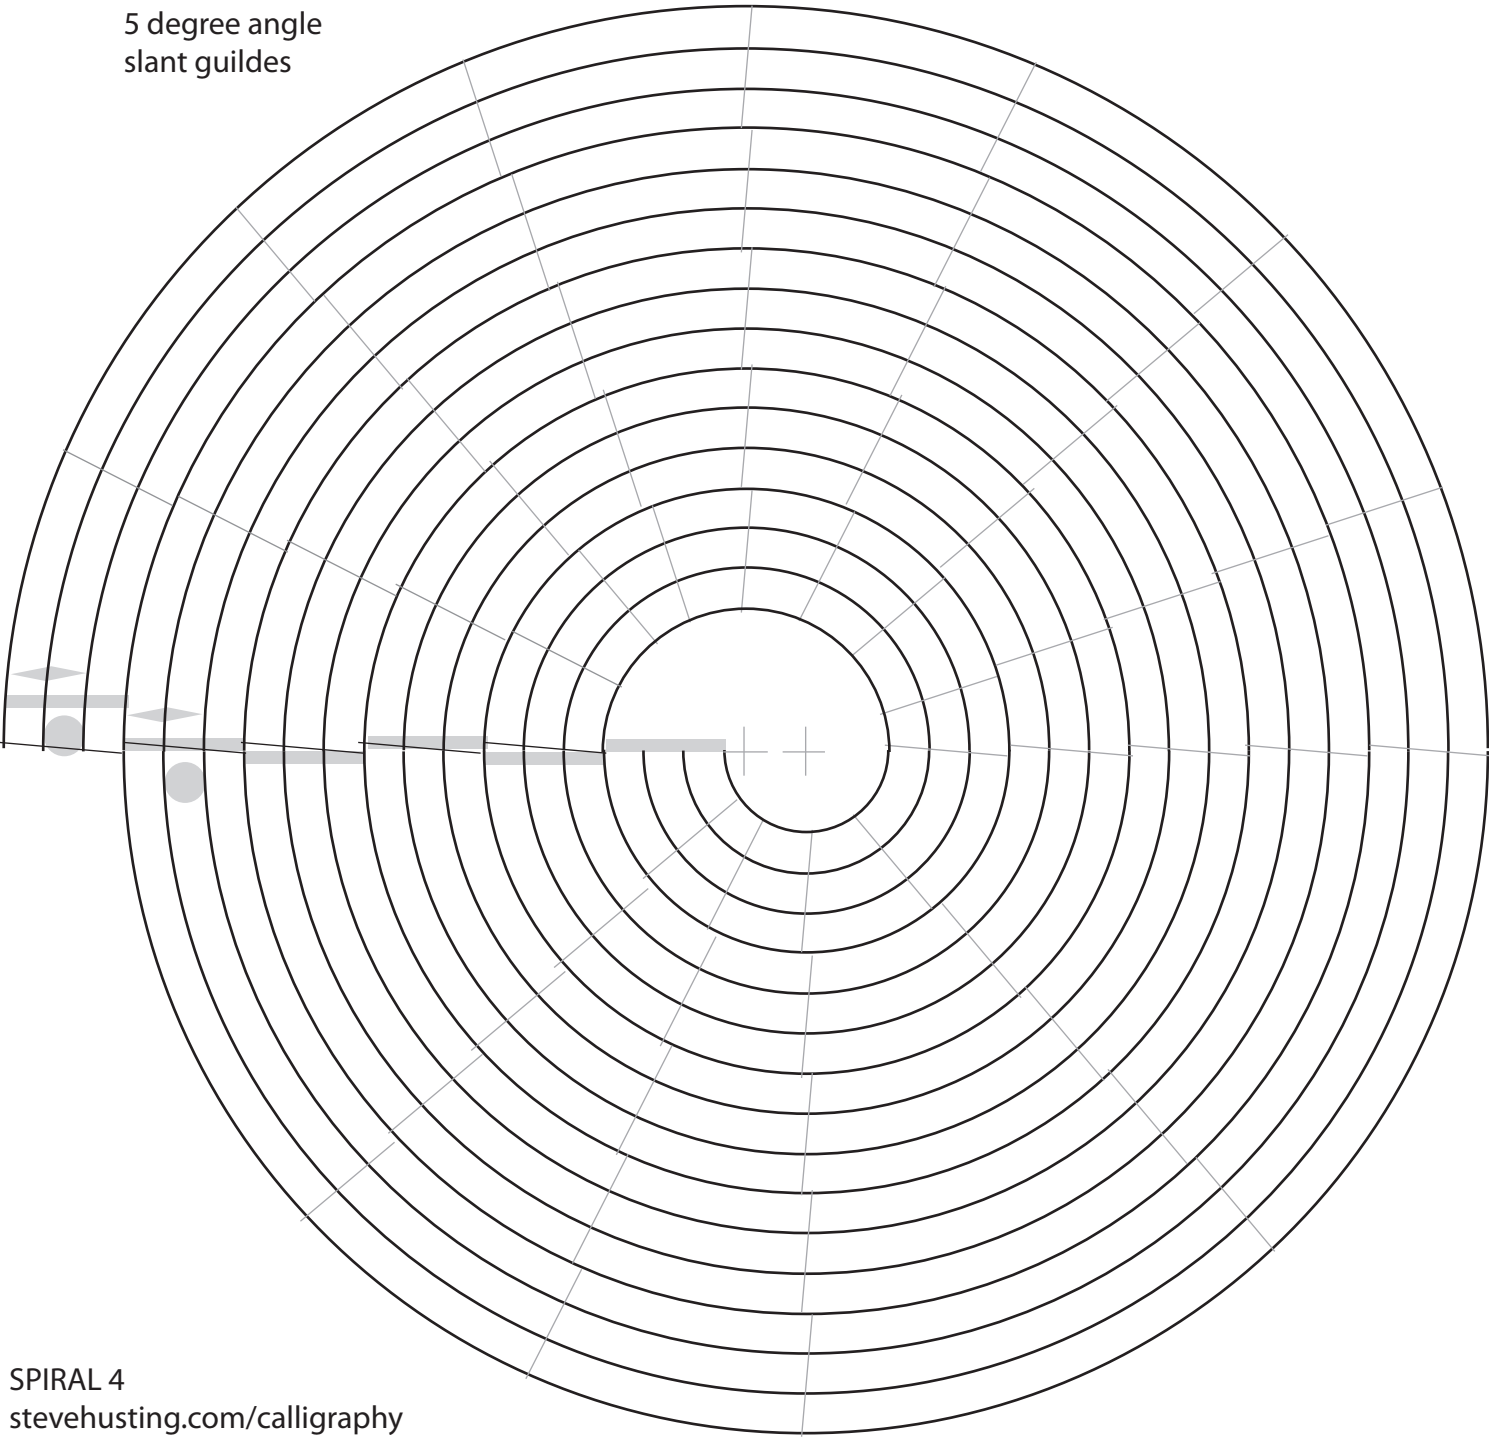

This is the same layout as spiral 4, but with thicker lines. Writing between the thick lines will give you more space above and below the text.

SPIRAL 6 medium
stevehusting.com/calligraphy

This is the same layout as spiral 1 medium, but with thicker lines. Writing between the thick lines will give you space above and below the text.

5 degree angle
slant guides

SPIRAL 4
stevehusting.com/calligraphy

Gray circles indicate the starting and ending location of text between two lines. There is a space above and below the space; use the space for ascenders and descenders.

Gray diamonds indicate starting and ending location of text when spread across three lines (two spaces). There is a space between the text.

Gray rectangles indicate starting and ending location of text when spread across four lines (three spaces).